An Independent, RESPA-Attentive, Web Site Advertising Valuation Model for Settlement Service Providers

MLinc Solutions A better way to work

Web Site Advertising Questions. Are you:

- Currently setting fees for web site advertising and related services provided by business associates without adequate basis or backup?
- Failing to obtain independent validation of the value of services?
- Unsure of how to set fees for services provided?
- Lacking the time or resources to implement a valuation methodology?
- Collecting insufficient input data from business associates and support for activities to justify fees paid?
- Concerned about demonstrating compliance with regulators?
- Not verifying that contracted services are actually provided?

The Web Site Advertising Services Valuation Solution

- Calculates estimated value of web site advertising and related services considering:
 - Internet
 - Social Media
 - Intranet (private network)
 - Other third-party platforms providing co-advertising and lead generation services
- Provides RESPA-attentive reasonable value to help clients set fees paid to business associates for web site advertising and related services rendered
- Generates valuations based upon compatible activities in the real estate and financial service industries
- Utilizes a one-page data input form completed by clients
- Works for an array of business associates:
 - Home builders
 - Real estate brokers
 - Relocation companies
 - Community banks
 - Credit unions
 - Professional service groups
 - Others
- Provides confidential valuation report with supporting detail
